MEMORANDUM

Your Honor,

The above-referenced defendant is charged with violations of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(b)(1)(A)(viii)- Knowingly and Intentionally Possess With Intent to Distribute Schedule II Controlled Substance, Namely More Than 500 Grams of a Mixture or Substance Containing a Detectable Amount of Methamphetamine. He was ordered released by Your Honor on July 24, 2007, on a $400,000 secured bond with numerous special conditions, including half-way house placement.

Prior to the arrest for the instant offense, Mr. Sanchez had reportedly worked for Fidelity Roof Company for more than 20 years. The company is based in Oakland (1075 40th Street), but does commercial and residential work all around the greater Bay Area. Aside from needed income, the defendant and his family receive health care benefits through this position. The undersigned spoke to Gustavo Sanchez, the defendant's brother, who also works for the company as a project manager, and he advised that the defendant's skills as a foreman are sorely needed at the company. He indicated that he could arrange for the defendant to work on larger projects (for example, they currently have a large job at the Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory), to make it easier for Pretrial Services to monitor and verify his work. Pretrial Services also spoke to Ken White, the company's president, and he advised that they would like the defendant to begin working again as soon as possible, and they are happy to assist Pretrial Services with any necessary, ongoing verification of employment.

Pretrial Services spoke to Assistant U.S. Attorney, Kim Briggs, who does not oppose to the defendant returning to work.

RECOMMENDATION: Pretrial Services respectfully recommends that the defendant's release conditions be modified as follows:

- 1) The defendant shall seek and maintain verifiable employment as directed by Pretrial Services; and
- 2) The defendant's travel is expanded to include the entire Northern District of California, and Solano County (within the Eastern District of California), for employment purposes.
